

SeniorAdopt: High-Level Specifications & Scope

App requirements	Product & Services	Gain Creators	Pain Relievers
Easy UI/UX design	Two button designs, with forward/backwards interaction.	Since the UI/UX is simple, there is minimal interaction from the users to use the app	The users are able to easily navigate the application without requiring help from others.
Easy login	-Username + password. -E-mail + password.	The users have a profile that they can visit and get reviews on their trust.	With the profiles they can see if the person is one, they would like to help them or help.
No ads or other distractions	Paid services (at least for some of the services offered)	Allows for more fluent app use, without tapping an ad and being pulled out of the app.	Avoids ads interfering with the trust for the app. Easier to use for the elders with less distractions.
Verified user accounts	Encrypted, or scam preventing	By the users being verified it can show that they have been checked up on by the developers of the app	The customers can trust the people that are helping/helped
Safe and easy economic transactions	Encrypted, or via (external) online bank	The users will be able to use their bank accounts, and bank ID. Which is trusted and allow for secure transactions.	The bank will be the bank of the user, and will be familiar to use for ease

In scope	Out of scope
Geographical area: Norway.	Rest of the world.

Operating systems (OS): IOS and Android.	Windows and MacOS.
Payment solution: Paid services (fee/hour).	Ads.
Secure logins and verified accounts.	Guest users/anonymity.
Social services: -Company/Conversation. -Pet caring. -Shopping together.	Social services: -Medical personnel, like psychotherapist, nurse, etc. -Veterinarian personnel. -Personal shopper (the junior is going to help with the shopping, not doing the shopping itself).
Manual services: -Gardening, householding	Manual services: -Hard labour
Practical services: -Technology -Teaching: cooking, drawing, Facebook/social media, etc.	Practical services: -Technicians -People with professional background